Forty-Fifth Annual Commencement Activities Will Be Staged Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, June 3, 4, 5

Alumni Get-Together Will Feature Music Of Jack Mills' Band

Alumni Dinner To Be Held In Comstock Hall Monday Evening, June 4

The Alumni dinner and annual get-together will be held this year Monday, June 4, and will feature the music of Jack Mills and his orchestra, the most noted orchestra ever to perform at a social function here at the College.

A special amplifying system is being installed in order that the small gymnasium as well as the large gymnasium may be used to accommodate an expected record attendance, which will include alumni and students of the College, with their guests and a number of honored guests. Ingleside will also be open for the occasion.

Special Meeting

A special meeting of old and new alumni members is being called immediately following the Recognition Pageant. The alumni banquet is scheduled for 6:30 p. m. in the dining rooms of Comstock Hall.

Informal dancing will begin in the gymnasium at 8:30 and will continue until 9:00 when the grand march will be staged, honoring the graduating Seniors and Sophomores.

Original Pageant Will Be Presented June 4

Students Who Have Done Outstanding Work Will Receive Recognition

Outstanding among the events of this year's commencement activities will be "The Portal," an original pageant, the work of Miss Frick, which will include the recognition of students who have attained superior records in the various divisions of school activity and also the induction of the degree graduates into the Alumni Association. The pageant will take place Monday, June 4, beginning at 4:00 p. m. on the Campus south of Weld Hall, and is to be enacted by the entire student body.

The "Pilgrims' Progress" idea will be carried out in the pageant and consists of three themes: first, man's relationship to a higher force; second, man's relationship to a discipline; and third, man's relationship to man. The recognition service will take place at the close of the pageant, with a faculty committee in charge.

According to Miss Leonard, who is in charge of commencement activities, plans are being formulated whereby it is hoped the recognition ceremony will be made an annual event at the College. Nominated by the various departments which sponsor activities, students were passed upon by a sifting committee consisting of Miss Leonard, Miss Lumley, Miss Frick, Dr. Lura, and Mr. Murray. The fields of recognition include citizenship, scholarship, music, publications, art, sports, debate, and dramatics.

Registration For Summer Session To Begin June 11

Summer school will open for registration Monday, June 11, and will continue for six weeks, closing Friday, July 27. Regular classwork will begin Tuesday, June 12. The classes will meet for double periods four times a week, beginning at 7:30 in the morning.

Many of the regular courses will be offered, especially advanced courses for students returning to do degree work. The teaching staff will include most of the present faculty members. Contrary to the program of previous years, there will be no extension classes offered.

ALUMNI MEETING

On Monday, June 4, immediately following the pageant, there will be a special meeting of all Alumni of the Moorhead State Teachers College in Room 236, MacLean Hall. It is earnestly requested that all Alumni, both old and new, attend this meeting.

Five Band Members To Be Honored At Concert

Program To Be Presented On Campus Sunday Afternoon, June 3

Some time during the Commencement concert Sunday afternoon, June 3, five Seniors who are members of the concert band will be honored. Each will receive a large framed picture of this year's concert band. Both as a matter of record and of sentiment, the last four grand concert programs are sealed in each of the pictures.

The Seniors are Martha Atkinson, Reynold Christensen, Dorothy Hoel, Arthur Skjonsby, and Vivian Smith.

Martha Atkinson, Moorhead, has been a member of the clarinet section during the past two years. She entered the College here as a junior, having received two years of training at the Hibbing Junior College. Reynold Christensen, Evan, has served as a member of the cornet section for four years. In this time he has been cornet soloist two years, librarian two years, and assistant director during the present year.

Dorothy Hoel

Dorothy Hoel, Thief River Falls, has also been a member of the band for four years. During three of these she has played bass drum, cymbals, and bells; one year she played in the horn section. Vivian Smith, Rothsay, has been a member of the clarinet section of the band during the past two years.

Arthur Skjonsby, Rosholt, S. D., has contributed to the success of the band since its origin—that is, since February, 1928. At that time, Skjonsby was attending the College High School. During his first three years of membership in the band, Skjonsby played first trombone; he devoted the next two years to the baritone, during one of which he was featured as a baritone soloist; during the present year (Continued on page 4)

All Students May Attend Alumni Dance On June 5

As a climax to the College social activities for the year, the College was united with the alumni in a plan for a Grand Ball to be held on the evening of June 4, with Jack Mills and his orchestra, one of the best-known in the northwest.

The Social Commission decided it wise to abandon the last All-College Party which was originally scheduled for this evening, in favor of this plan. However, it will still remain an All-College Party in that everyone is invited to attend. It will not be a program dance. Plans are being made to honor the graduating Seniors and Sophomores.

The regulations governing the dance, as announced by Russell Monson, social commissioner, are as follows:

1. The Seniors and Juniors pay as a class, which will admit only themselves. Their guests, if outside of the respective classes, must be paid for, and if off Campus, their names submitted to the Guest committee.

2. The Sophomores and Freshmen will be charged 50 cents a ticket or 75 cents a couple. The names of their guests, if outside the College, must also be submitted to the Guest committee.

The Guest committee will meet Friday, June 1, at 4 p. m.

Will Retire

Miss Mary Rainey, primary supervisor, who will retire in June after twenty-six years of active service at the College.

College Debate Squad Is Honored At Banquet

Gold "M" Keys Are Presented To Seniors, Oliver Asp And Martha Atkinson

The College debate squad and its coach, Mr. Loewen, were honored at a banquet given in Comstock Hall last Wednesday. Following some remarks by the toastmaster, Jack Bridges, Mr. Loewen discussed with the group plans for the coming season.

As is the custom, the gold "M" keys with a star for each year's work were presented the senior members who have been with the squad at least two years—Oliver Asp and Martha Atkinson. For participation in debate this year Jack Bridges, Gordon Hanson, Luverne Lewis, Eunice Andrews, Lucy Grommesh, and Nyal Dokken were given silver "M"s.

Music Students To Appear In Recitals

Rolf Logan, Violinist, Will Assist At Marvin Rice's Recital Tonight

This evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Weld Hall Music Recital Room, Marvin Rice, baritone, will be presented in a student recital. He will be assisted by Rolf Logan, violinist, with Miss Eleanor Nesheim playing the accompaniments.

Next Tuesday at 8:15 p. m., six students will appear in recital in Weld Hall. Gretchen Rehfeld, Esther Langehaug, Margaret Baller, Delia Peterson, pianists and students of Miss Eleanor Nesheim, and Joe Best and Florence Williams, voice students of Mr. Preston, will participate in the program.

Last night Beulah Lund and Betty Henderson, piano pupils of Miss Nesheim, appeared in a recital in Weld Hall. They were assisted by Mrs. Kise.

Curtis Ballard's Art Display Is Featured

Student Art Work Also On Display At Annual Art Exhibition

Miss McCarten calls them "pictorial photographic compositions," while the less enlightened student merely refers to them as "those beautiful black and white pictures in the art room," and adds as an afterthought, "What were they made with?"

"They were made with a Leica camera, through the ingenuity and artistic ability of Curtis Ballard, son of Mr. C. A. Ballard and former art student of Miss McCarten. With the assistance of Wilbur Taylor, president of the Detroit Camera Club, Mr. Ballard has made it his hobby to compose interesting pictorial groups, record the impression with a small vest pocket camera, and then enlarge the tiny snapshot into a picture of beautiful color tones and striking composition.

Photographic Display

Mr. Ballard's photographic compositions have been displayed at the Minneapolis and Wilmington, Delaware, art salons and at various other places. They are now on display in the M. S. T. C. art studios in connection with the annual art exhibit, which was held yesterday.

Also on display was creative work produced during the past year by both beginning and advanced students in the Related, Manual, and Fine Arts classes. The members of the Art Club acted as hosts and hostesses, conducting the guests among the exhibits and explaining to them the various mediums used.

Outstanding among the contributions to the exhibit were sketches and pastel work by Rudolph Bergstrom, creations which elicited much admiration from the guests. Other members of the Art Club and also a great many less-experienced art students contributed largely to the success of the exhibit.

Alarmed because the National Student League has "radical" and Communistic tendencies, the senate committee on student affairs at the University of Illinois has denied the league recognition at the Illini institution.

Fifty Two Seniors To Receive Degrees At Exercises June 5

John P. Devaney Is Speaker For Commencement; Baccalaureate Services June 3

Culminating a school year of outstanding achievements, fifty-two Seniors and 154 Sophomores will be graduated at the forty-fifth annual College Commencement exercises to be held in the Weld Hall Auditorium beginning at 10:00 a. m. Tuesday, June 5.

Speaking on the subject, "Present Trends in Government," John P. Devaney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, will deliver the main address of the program. The invocation is to be given by the Reverend George E. Stickney of Fergus Falls.

Double Quartet

One feature of the program is to be a selection, "This is the Moon of Roses," sung by the double male quartet. Dr. Gilbert Gosslee, resident director of the College, will present the diplomas, while President R. B. MacLean will grant the degrees. Mr. Joseph Kise will present the Senior class.

Sunday evening, June 3, at 8:00 o'clock, Baccalaureate services will be conducted in Weld Hall Auditorium with the Reverend William H. Boddy of the Westminster Church, Minneapolis, speaking on the topic "What Men Live By." Father Lambert Weckwerth, O. S. B., will give the invocation.

A special vocal number, "The Lord is My Shepherd," is to be sung by Agnes Jorgenson Kise. The choir will also present a selection, "Festival Te Deum," by Buck.

List Of Placements Shows Steady Growth

Thirty Students Have Reported Teaching Positions Already Obtained

The daily placements that are being made make the list of those receiving contracts for schools next year somewhat incomplete. However, considering the time of the year and existing conditions, the number of placements made compare favorably with former records.

The following thirty people have already reported receiving positions: Oliver Asp, H. Agnes Dahl, Dorothy Anderson, Norma Moebeck, Myrtle Nelson, Delia Peterson, Lyman Bringgold, Henry Booher, Jane Canniff, Charlotte Stark, Eunice Boyum, Evelyn Brodsho, Mildred Braaten.

Advanced Interpretation Students Present Recital

Culminating the term's laboratory work, eight students of Miss Taintner's Advanced Interpretation class were presented in an invitational recital Wednesday afternoon.

Those who participated in the recital and their selections follow: Wilson Dokken, characteristic poems of Walt Whitman; Enid Peterson, selections from the drama "The Barrets of Wimpole Street," by Sidney Besier; Jean Lang, Lew Sarett and his Indian poems; Luverne Lewis, the "Prisoner of Chillon," by Lord Byron; Alice French, "Barrel Organ," Alfred Noyes; Gordon Hanson, Shakespeare's "Wooing of King Henry V."

Clara Jorgenson and Vance Hallack presented a scene from the "Constant Lover," by St. John Hankin.

EDITORIALS

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Thus we arrive at the end of another year of college life, the end of another year in which delightful acquaintances have been made, wholesome experiences lived, and broader educational bonds formed. In fact, it's been a great year, and it's kind of hard to see the end of it in any other than a rather sorrowful light.

But let's leave our crying to the sob sisters and silver-tongued orators and see what has been accomplished in a constructive way during the past year through the cooperation of students, faculty, and alumni.

Probably the biggest achievement, an achievement which will live for years to come, was the building of the Campus Gateway, made possible through the active initiative of the Alumni Association and the whole-hearted cooperation of student organizations and faculty.

That gateway should have a significance to the students. It represents the interest of an alumni group for the welfare of the institution from which they were graduated. It represents the appreciation of the members of the Alumni Association for the things which the College has given them.

What could be more appropriate for graduating members than to affiliate themselves with this enthusiastic, active organization and thus keep in touch with their friends, their schoolmates, and the College itself?

AND SO—FAREWELL

Comes the time of the year when all editors bid fond farewells to their dear public and when the dear public reciprocates by bidding an equally fond, and possibly more enthusiastic, farewell. Such is the case, theoretically.

However, theoretical or practical, whichever the case may be, there still remains the fact that this issue of the Western MiSTiC spells swan song for the present staff and that next year the destinies of the College paper will rest in other hands.

The experience, it must be said, has been a worthwhile one, and there have been some times when the editor has felt that life was a pretty good proposition, such as when someone says that he has read an editorial from beginning to end.

But then, on the other hand, (and there is another hand) there are times when life is just one precarious situation after another. Panning from the students, criticisms from faculty members, razzing from organizations for failure to give adequate publicity to momentous (in their opinion) events, make life just a bowl of—raspberries.

Probably it wouldn't do any harm to admit at this stage of the game, that occasionally a mistake appears in this publication, but if searching for other alibis fails, the blame can usually be laid to typographical errors.

In conclusion, however, let it be said that the experience has been really worthwhile. For the editorial staff has learned to take it, the readers have learned to give it, and as far as we're concerned, that is worthwhile.

So long!

From The Editor's Semicircle

This year's commencement program includes a wider scope of participating activities than ever before.

And don't forget that there is another opportunity to hear that excellent concert band directed by Mr. Christensen.

Will Chief Justice Devaney lay down the law at the graduation exercises?

The conference athletic program winds up with a tennis meet tomorrow at St. Cloud and a track meet June 2 at the University of Minnesota. Let's hope the Dragon colors are kept flying!

And once more—so long!

The Open Column

A Graduate's View

To the Editor of the MISTIC:

As a college graduate who has the fortunate opportunity to sense intimately the crucial importance of the present time, I look with a great hope toward the possibility of initiating a "Youth Movement" in this nation, such as is referred to in your publication two weeks ago.

There are errors in the present economic, social, and political system. There is graft—charlatanism—corruption—but that is not the worst—nor the most distressing factor in the situation.

More terrifying than all that is the expressed bewilderment of those in "high places"—the inability of those in whom we have placed the wand of power—to say more than "I don't know" when asked to look into tomorrow. Bewildered—each looks to the other for advice—and leadership. More or less blindly they obey orders from equally bewildered people "higher up."

Though Dunn and Bradstreet may proudly flaunt an index of business recovery—that does not indicate the recovery of social and economic stabilization—it does not mean that the "new deal" for all is realized.

Lack of organized leadership is the cue—lack of ability to reconcile themselves to change—a dearth of new and fresh ideas—untainted by years of warped thinking—it is a time when youth shall lead.

There is but one plank in our platform—"We pledge ourselves to do all in our power to create an intelligent-thinking, happy America populace"—encompassing all those petty codes and creeds.

I congratulate the MISTIC on its stand in this matter and wish more power to you who are looking forward in this matter.

DONALD E. BIRD.

Way Back When—

(From the M. S. T. C., May 22, 1926)

Mr. Arthur Storms was the first person on the Campus to receive his Bachelor of Education degree. He stood alone among the 140 two-year students that left the College in 1926.

The senior girls on the Campus were honor guests at a lawn tea given by the Pi Mu Phi and Gamma Nu sororities.

Miss Flora Frick wrote, compiled, and directed the annual Arts and Music Pageant. The part of Pluto was played by Marvin Rice.

LAMBDA PHI SIGMA INITIATED ELEVEN NEW MEMBERS AT A CEREMONIAL AND BANQUET THAT TOOK PLACE IN FARGO.

Gov. Theodore Christianson was the thirty-seventh annual commencement speaker.

The Owl fraternity celebrated its Silver Anniversary. Over 100 members took part in the festivities.

Intramural Sports Provide Chance For Male "Huskies," And Otherwise, To Keep In Trim

From beginning to end, the spring schedule provided opportunities for the husky (and otherwise) males to take part in intramural contests of athletic skill and strength, either under the direction of the coaching class or the class in playground management. Combining pleasure and exercise, the games were in keeping with the ideals of bodily development of the department of physical education of the College.

During the first few weeks of the term, the intramural basketball league finished its schedule, the championship game being played March 13. The league of six teams had an enrollment of about fifty students. The Hermes took the second half of the split season schedule and continued by taking the league championship from the Apollos in an exciting game.

The gum-shoes of the basketball players were laid aside for the paddles and pellets of the royal game of ping pong. Enthusiastic support was given the sport and it flourished. As the high light of the spring season of the ping pong, the tournament roused the hopes of some thirty contestants. Experience proved its value as the "old timers" took the newer stars into camp. Wallace seized the singles crown from Boyd and Wallace and Swenson carried off the honors in the doubles.

The swimming contests wound up last month with Joe Edlund in the lead with sixty points, followed by Bob Marquardt with fifty-five. On this score, accumulated during four meets held one each month, Edlund received

Business Textbook Is Received By Library

Number Of Books On Athletics, Sports Fundamentals Are Also Received

"Business Principles Everyone Should Know," Zu Tavern and Bullock, now in the College library, goes much further than the typical text in elementary business training. It goes quite thoroughly into such subjects as real estate, investment, insurance management, accounting, and buying—all primarily on the consumer level.

Recently, educators have made demands of this type for text. This is the first step made in that direction.

The men of the College will find a lot of valuable material in the following new books, volumes in the Schriber Athletic Library: "Football, How to Play It and How to Understand It," J. W. Wilce; "Track and Field," I. E. Jones, Physical Director at the University of Wisconsin. This book gives the details of training and practice for each event.

It is written primarily for beginners and for coaches and forms a complete guide to the teaching of practically every event of athletic interest. "Swimming and Diving," Gerald Barnes, is a book which is practical to skilled swimmers and coaches of swimming as well as beginners.

Charles Hammet has written a book on "Major Sport Fundamentals" in which he presents in compact form methods which have been successful and information that will be of value to coaches accumulated bit by bit during an experience of thirty years.

One section is devoted to the psychology of coaching, the other to practical work on field and floor. It gives essentials for successful teams in football, baseball, basketball, and track. It should be valuable in helping coaches avoid mistakes which are usually made in the early years of their career.

Rural Group Honors Miss Pearl Shetler

Rho Lambda Chi To Present "Chintz Cottage" At Clearview Tonight

Miss Pearl Shetler, the June bride-to-be of Mr. Eugene Grover, was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. J. Gunderson. Hosts and hostesses were: Mrs. Gunderson, Mrs. Thomas Olson, Dr. Archer, Miss Bierl, Miss Corneliussen, Miss Loudon, Miss Lommen, and the teachers of the affiliated schools. Other guests included Marie Sorknes, Grace Mostue, and Miss Owens. The evening was spent informally, and Miss Shetler was presented with a gift in linen.

The Rho Lambda Chi society play cast will present "Chintz Cottage" at Clearview tonight.

Library Filled With Students During First Days of Fall Term

NO RESTRICTIONS PLACED ON STUDENTS IN HANDLING OF BOOKS

Activity in the Library during the opening days of school indicates that the students are becoming acquainted early with its resources and services. Lessons in the use of the library will be given early in the term to all Freshman students. The librarians will assist them in every way possible to become at home and resourceful in their use of library materials.

A very unusual opportunity is offered in this college in that all book shelves are open to the students who thus may come easily in contact with all the books, with no restrictions to limit their use of them. This is a privilege that should be appreciated and not imposed on by the students. There are library rules necessarily, but these rules are made entirely for the benefit of the students to insure quiet, order, and an organized and equal service to everyone.

Four years ago the school building burned and the fine library of 25,000 volumes went up in flames. The library as it stands today is the result of a determined and tireless effort of restoration. The collection now numbers over 15,000 volumes, all new and up-to-date in every department. The reference department has been almost entirely restored to its original content.

The reserve section is well provided with the latest and most valuable books for assigned reference reading, and in numbers sufficient to accomodate the large classes using them. The library has one hundred and sixty periodicals that come regularly and are on the open shelves in the reference rooms. These include publications in all fields of study, and also many of the best magazines of general interest for recreational and cultural reading.

In the newspaper room are a number of the principal daily newspapers, prominent weekly newspapers and the county papers from home towns.

Hundreds of new books just received are assembled in the work rooms and will be prepared as soon as possible for the shelves.

A special section for display of new books of general interest will give the students an opportunity to see, and select, and read from choice, many of the interesting new things in print.

The library rooms are large and light and airy. Books are all about the room inviting you to read. Beautiful pictures are on the walls. It is a place for study, enjoyment, and inspiration.

Miss Ida N. Varhus, graduate of the two year course in 1925, and Orlin R. Merwin, Grand Rapids, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Varhus, Marietta, on June 22. They are at home at Grand Rapids, where Mr. Merwin is engaged in the insurance business. Mrs. Merwin formerly taught at Cloquet and Minneapolis.

Mrs. Arthur Pearson, Madison, formerly Miss Rhoda Maland of the college training school staff, was a visitor in the city early in the summer. She was a delegate attending the International Luther League convention held in Fargo.

Removal of Cottages Discussed at Meeting

Business concerned with the removal and rental of the cottages, property of the Moorhead State Teachers College Alumni Association, was the chief item of discussion at a meeting of the alumni directors' board Saturday, September 2. The group was entertained by Leonard Erikssen, Fergus Falls attorney, at his summer home at Jewett lake. Following the dinner, the meeting took place. Blueprints of the entrance gates to be erected by the alumni and student groups on the campus, were examined and discussed. Those present were Ole R. Sande, St. Paul, president; Ralph Iverson, Tower, secretary; James A. Dahl, Glyndon; Anna Lyngstad, Fargo; Wallace Rosel, Hendrum; Margaret Maland, Moorhead; and Mr. Erikssen.

Paul Olaf is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Olaf J. Scheie, Gonvick, for their son born June 24. Mrs. Scheie is the former Miss Seima Varhus, degree graduate of M. S. T. C. 1930. Mr. Scheie, graduate of Concordia College, is superintendent of the school at Gonvick.

Miss Thelma Maland, Marietta, graduate of the two year course in 1928, spent a week in June as a visitor in Moorhead, leaving here for Littlefork to visit at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Hanover. She has returned to Marshall to resume her work as third grade teacher.

Training School Has Record Enrollment

NEARLY 300 REGISTERED IN FOUR DEPARTMENTS; H. S. TOTAL 130

The Training School opened its doors September 5 with the largest enrollment in its history. In fact, the number of pupils admitted to the Kindergarten had to be limited. Approximately 300 students are attending the school this year. This increase in enrollment makes it necessary to use more practise teachers than usual. The enrollment for the different departments are as follows: Kindergarten 46; Primary 35; Intermediate 65; and the High School 130.

Miss Lommen is expecting a very successful school year.

1933 Coaching School Is Fourth Largest Within United States

"HUNK" ANDERSON, H. G. OLSON,
CHUCK TAYLOR HEAD
INSTRUCTORS

The fourth largest coaching school in the country held its classes in the Physical Education building and upon Memorial Field during the week of August 21-26.

The staff, the largest ever assembled by Alex "Sliv" Nemzek, director of the school, consisted of nationally known figures in sporting circles, including Heartly "Hunk" Anderson, head coach at the University of Notre Dame, who is considered the best authority on football in this country; H. G. Olson, basketball coach at Ohio State University; Chuck Taylor, nationally known professional basketball star; Dave Woodward, well known trainer from the University of Minnesota, and E. W. Everts, of the State Department of Physical Education.

Eighty-five coaches from all parts of the country, among them many nationally famous either as coaches or players, were in attendance, some coming from as far East as New York and as far West as Washington, proving that "Sliv's" pet project has developed nationwide reputation. Plans are already on foot for a bigger and better coaching school next year.

AN INVITATION

The churches of Moorhead unite to extend a welcome to the students of Moorhead State Teachers College. As a token of this welcome, we have designated next Sunday, September 17, as Student Sunday. The people of Moorhead will rejoice for every student that worships in our congregations.

During your stay in the city it is the desire of ministry and parishioners to be everything to you that your home church may mean. You are welcome to any service or activity that our churches sponsor.

Your opportunity to study, rightly used, will bless your life and the community from which you come. We covet for you all this realization.

45 Grid Candidates Working Out Daily

a backfield position where his tremendous speed will be of advantage.

The quarterback post is being strengthened as the candidates become more familiar with the style of play used. Aspirants for this post are Johnny Nemzek, Moorhead; Ross Stephens, Aitkin, whose injured knee kept him from service last year; and Walter Scheela, International Falls. A fourth prospect is Lyle Glass, small, shifty candidate from Mahanomen.

Schranz Heads Linemen

In the line, Vernon Schranz, Moorhead, has been outstanding with Joe Brula, Sudan, pushing Wilbur Bailey, Russell Monson, and Julian Bjerkness for the other tackle position. Capt. Jim Blaine, Frazee, seems to be the answer to Coach Nemzek's search for an aggressive, hard-tackling guard. From this important position it is felt that his leadership will be advantageous. Other guard candidates are the veterans Clarence McAllister, Park Rapids, and John Chisholm, Bessemer, Michigan.

The task of filling the center position shows Bob Marquardt, Moorhead, leading with Art Berlin, Red Wing, and Elmer Holm, Jr., Dilworth, adding to the reserves. Present plans call for George Meyers, Frazee, former full-back, to try out for this position because of his aggressive play.

Doris Radebough, Grandin, N. D., Leonard, N. D.; Doris Riste, Hendrum, Hendrum; Enora Rudser; Borup, Valley City, N. D.; Rhoda Salvorsen, Ada, Glynndon; Florence Simonsen, Kindred, N. D.; Wheaton; Esther Sorenson, Madison, Madison Dist. 45; Charlotte Stark, Kensington, Dist. 70, Stevens County.

Olaf Stockstad, Milnor, N. D., Dist. 8, Sargeant County, N. D.; Maribel Sylvester, Humboldt, Humboldt; Marjorie Teig, Borup, Dist. 35, Norman County; Lenore Thoen, Felton, Walcott, N. D.; Gladys Torkildson, Glynndon, Glynndon Dist. 26 Muriel Troumbly, Red Lake Falls, Oklee; Hilda Westrom, Elbow Lake, Dist. 15, Grant County.

Patroness Honored At Sorority Gathering

Mrs. A. M. Christensen, honorary member and patroness of Pi Mu Phi sorority, was guest of honor at a social meeting of the group in Ingleside on Wednesday evening. Other guests included Mrs. Morris Stadum, president of the Alumnae Association, and Grace Harriet Hagen, Solveig Headlund, Lucille Osbourne, Ann Gibb, Grace Johnson, alumnae members. Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Nina Jorgenson and Barbara Robertson.

Northern Lights

Your operative made the inexcusable error today of asking Coach Alex Nemzik what sort of a congregation he would be able to assemble on the Dragon campus this season.

"Puleese" whimpered Commissioner Nemzik, "I can't talk about it."

"If I beat the Freshmen in November I'll be the most surprised coach in the business."

"I have not hardly been able to look any of my prospects in the face because every time I do my heart bleeds for their terrible aenemic condition." (Sniff, Sniff).

Of course it is to smile as we know that the Old Skipper can mould as nifty a grid team as any expert that ever donned a moleskin.
